Goal of Education and Admission Policy

• Goal of Education

The goal of Hokkaido University Graduate School of Engineering is to inherit academic achievements accumulated over human history and to advance science and technology beyond past achievements, and thereby, to nurture individuals with a solid education background and advanced technical skills over diverse engineering fields and with the ability to adapt to globalization, ongoing advancements in science and technology, the trend toward interdisciplinary research, and who can think, decide and respond to practical challenges.

• What we look for in a student

-Master's Program

- (1) Students who have a wide range of education and specialized knowledge of science and technology from a broad perspective, and who have the thinking and decision-making skills necessary to solve problems.
- (2) Students with communication ability to enable mutual understanding with people from all over the world who have various ideas.
- (3) Students who are motivated to continuously acquire and improve the above knowledge and abilities.
- (4) Students who are willing to think about and solve various problems that arise in society.

Students are expected to have acquired before entering the Master's Program academic skills and ethics required to study and conduct research in their field of specialization.

-Doctoral Program

- (1) Students who have a wide range of education and a wealth of advanced specialized knowledge of science and technology from a broad perspective, and who have the excellent thinking and decision-making skills necessary to solve problems.
- (2) Students with high communication ability to enable mutual understanding with people from all over the world who have various ideas.
- (3) Students who are motivated to continuously acquire and improve the above knowledge and abilities.
- (4) Students who are willing and able to think about and solve various problems that arise in society and create new science and technology through problem solving.

Students are expected to have acquired before entering the Doctoral Program high academic skills and ethical standards required to study and conduct research in their field of specialization.

- Basic Policy for Selection of Applicants

The Graduate School of Engineering selects individuals of any nationality who have graduated from a specialized field of science and engineering and intend to obtain a master's or doctoral degree in the field of engineering, as well as qualified individuals who intend to obtain a doctoral degree while working after completing their undergraduate or master's degree.

- e3 Program Special Selection

The e3 Program Special Selection selects students from overseas who wish to obtain a degree at the graduate school in English based on an oral examination of their specialized knowledge, research ability, and willingness to tackle research problems, and a comprehensive evaluation of their basic academic skills and foreign language ability based on their application documents.

1. About the Program

International graduate program in English (Master's and Doctoral degree) was first established at the Graduate School of Engineering, Hokkaido University in the year of 2000 as English Graduate Program in Social Environmental Engineering (EGPSEE) in order to attract qualified international students, who speak little or no Japanese. The e³program has gradually expanded to cover the other fields of engineering and was renamed English Engineering Education Program (hereafter referred as e³ program) from 2007. The e³ program comprises of 13 divisions, encompassing all fields of Engineering.

The e³ program aims to educate together international and Japanese students in both Master's and Doctoral degrees in a multicultural and inter-disciplinary environment in English. The goal of the e³ program is to foster globally competitive individuals, engineers, and researchers, who possess in-depth knowledge, are equipped with up-to-date technologies, have a global mindset, and are able to work, taking leadership in various fields.

To foster the individuals described above and achieve its goal, the e³ program embraces the diversity of origins of the applicants and recruits' students from all over the world.

2. Admission Categories

Admission screening to the program is conducted under the two categories, e³ Special Selection, and Double Degree Program Special Selection. Please carefully confirm eligibility, requirements, and deadlines for each category in the respective application guidelines. This guideline describes the matters related to e³ Special Selection.

- e³ Special Selection
- Double Degree Program Special Selection (please refer to the respective guidelines)

Application guidelines for each category are published online on the e³ program's web page: <http://www.eng.hokudai.ac.jp/e3/>

3. Divisions under the e³ program

There are 13 divisions accepting applications under the e³ program.

The number of openings: several Master's and Doctoral program students for each division.

Divisions
Applied Physics	Engineering and Policy for Sustainable Environment
Materials Science and Engineering	Architectural and Structural Design
Mechanical and Space Engineering	Human Environmental System
Human Mechanical Systems and Design	Environmental Engineering
Energy and Environmental Systems	Sustainable Resources Engineering
Quantum Science and Engineering	Cooperative Program for Resources Engineering (Master's program only)
Field Engineering for the Environment

【About Cooperative Program for Resource Engineering】

The Cooperative Program for Resource Engineering is a collaborative education program between the graduate schools of engineering of Hokkaido University and Kyushu University.

- (1) School registration: Applicant will enroll in one of the two universities, where his/her supervisor belongs to.
- (2) Utilization of school facilities: Students can use the facilities of both universities.
- (3) Co-supervisor: Students can receive the research supervision from an advisor (co-supervisor) from the other university.
- (4) Online classes: Students can take internet-based courses provided from the other university, if applicable.
- (5) Degree: Student will be awarded one degree recognized from both universities.

Cautions for applicants to Cooperative Program for Resources Engineering

- (1) Entrance examination will be done in the university where you apply to. Please carefully check the examination schedules, contents and research topics of the university.
- (2) Home university: you will be enrolled in the university where you take the entrance examination. All the academic procedures required for campus life (enrollment fee, tuition, scholarships, course registration) should be done in your home university.
- (3) If you complete the admission procedure for one university in the cooperative program, you cannot apply for another university

6. Documents Check

All the applicants are required to take Documents Check.

Required documents

All applicants are required to submit the documents listed in section “15. List of the Documents” for a document check before submitting original application documents.

Submission Method

Documents check shall be submitted through e³ online system (<https://eprogram.eng.hokudai.ac.jp/>). If there is any problem uploading, please consult to the e³ program office (eprogram@eng.hokudai.ac.jp).

Notification of Documents Check

Notification of documents check will be announced by e-mail. Only applicants who passed the documents check are required to pay the examination fee and post the original documents. The examination fee is paid through the website (<http://e-apply.jp/e/hokudai-eng/>) during the application period. In the case that you did not receive an e-mail from the e³ program office by the deadline, please inquire about it.

Matching Service

Graduate students conduct research under the guidance of a supervisor. All applicants are required to find a faculty member whose research topic matches their research interests and get acceptance from a prospective supervisor before submitting application materials. If you do not have acceptance yet, it is strongly recommended that you use the Matching Service. Please submit the necessary documents on the e³ online system during the matching period so that the e³ office can forward your documents to your prospective supervisor. You will receive the matching result from e³ office by e-mail. Please check the details from our website (<https://eprogram.eng.hokudai.ac.jp/>).

-Payment of the examination fee must be completed during the period of hard copy submission/examination fee payment. Before the payment period starts, applicants will receive instruction for payment and its password from the e³ office.

-Admission procedure is considered complete only when application materials arrive at the e³ program office and the examination payment is finished by the deadline.

-The examination fee is non-refundable.

-Those who are applying for the Doctoral program straight after graduating from a Master degree program from any Graduate School at Hokkaido University are exempted from paying the examination fee.

-Recipients and prospective recipients of such scholarships as Japanese Government MEXT scholarships and Hokkaido University President's Fellowship are exempted from payment of the examination fee.

9. Admission Screening

Document Screening

In the process of document screening, various components of the application are considered and evaluated, such as the quality of the applicant's prior academic degree, grades, record of accomplishment and publications, research proposal, recommendation letters, relevant work experience, and so on.

Interview

An interview is required for overseas and domestic applicants as part of the application review process. An interview will be conducted online in principle.

Interviews are scheduled individually. In some cases, an online interview during the period other than mentioned in section 6 may be conducted. Applicants will be notified about the schedule of the interview through their potential supervisors.

*Interviews for internal applicants who have been already enrolled in Hokkaido University can be conducted on campus.

<GPA>

In most cases, e³ applicants should have a high academic performance (e.g. 80%, or 3.0 on a 4.0-point GPA Scale) to qualify for the Special Selection.

10. Examination Results and Admission Certificate

Examination results are notified to the applicants by e-mail.

Admission Certificate

The admission certificate is sent as a PDF file by e-mail to those who are accepted.

11. Enrollment Fee and Tuition

Amount of Fees

Enrollment fee	282,000 JPY (At the time of enrollment)
Tuition for a semester	267,900 JPY (Annual fee: 535,800 JPY)

-Fees listed above are subject to change. If any revision is made at the time of admission or while the student is enrolled, the new amount will be applied at the time of the revision.

-If the enrollment fee is not paid during the enrollment procedure period, the applicant will not be able to enroll.

-Information regarding the enrollment procedure and payment methods will be notified together with the application of exemption for entrance and tuition fee. If you are having problems paying tuition due to financial hardship, you may be eligible for a tuition exemption (or deferment).

-If tuition is not paid for one semester, the student will be expelled from Hokkaido University.

-Those applying for the Doctoral program straight after graduating from a Master's degree program from any Graduate School at Hokkaido University are exempted from paying the enrollment fee.

-Awardees of such scholarships as, Japanese Government MEXT scholarship, CSC scholarship and Hokkaido University President's Fellowship are exempted from paying the enrollment fee and tuition for the period of scholarship.

Enrollment Fee and Tuition Exemption /Deferment of Enrollment Fee

Self-supported students can apply for exemption of the enrollment fee and tuition as well as deferment of enrollment fee. Application documents will be sent to candidates by e-mail.

Study Support System for Doctoral Students

In order to improve the educational and research environment of Doctoral course students, the Graduate School of Engineering provides support for tuition through the combination of tuition exemption and employment as Research Assistant (RA). In a case that your tuition is not fully exempted, your supervisor is eligible to apply for support to hire you as a Research Assistant to cover the rest of your tuition.

12. Visa Application Assistance

Applicants needed Certificate of Eligibility (CoE)

Once the applicants receive the admission certificate, the e³ program office will apply for a CoE on behalf of the applicants. After the CoE is issued, the e³ program office will send it to each applicant's home address. After receiving the CoE, applicants must proceed to apply for a student Visa at a Japanese Embassy or Consulate.

The MEXT Scholarship Recipients

In addition to the admission certificate, an acceptance letter will be issued by the Graduate School of Engineering after the scholarship is confirmed, and the e³ program office will send it to you by email so that you can apply for visa without CoE as a MEXT scholarship recipient.

13. Protection of Personal Information

(1) All personal information collected by Hokkaido University will be completely protected in compliance with the Act on the Protection of Personal Information Held by Independent Administrative Agencies, etc., and other related acts and pursuant to the Hokkaido University Regulations on Personal Information Management.

(2) Names, addresses, and other personal information provided to the university through application procedures will be used solely for (a) enrollee selection (application processing and the screening process), (b) the announcement of exam results, (c) admission procedures, (d) surveys and research on enrollee selection methods, and (e) related processes.

(3) Some of these processes may be outsourced by the university to a contracted service provider (hereinafter referred to as "contractor"). All or some of the personal information provided by applicants may be provided to the contractor only as needed to perform the tasks for which it has been contracted.

(4) Personal information obtained through application procedures will be used only for those who are admitted for (a) school administration purposes (student registration, academic counseling, etc.), (b) student support services (health management, scholarship applications, etc.), and (c) tuition and other administrative purposes. (Personal information of applicants for Cooperative Program for Resources Engineering will be used in Kyushu University for the purpose of (a) and (b).)

(5) Of the personal information described in item (4) above, only names and addresses will be used to facilitate communication with students from the Hokkaido University Frontier Foundation and organizations related to Hokkaido University, such as (a) the Hokkaido University Athletic Union, and (b) Hokkaido University Faculty of Engineering "Hokkokai".
